

Virginia Indians: 400 Years of Survival
An Educational Conference, October 5, 2006 and
Tours of Tribal Centers
October 6-7, 2006

Revised Agenda

Thursday, October 5 – Educational Conference Colony Room DE, Conference Center, Williamsburg Lodge

- 7:30 am Registration
- 9:00 Welcome Remarks and Introduction of Program
Kenneth Adams, Chief of the Upper Mattaponi Tribe
Jeanne Zeidler, Mayor of Williamsburg
Colin Campbell, Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation
- 9:15 Session I – Indian Law and Culture Through History
Moderator – Stephen Adkins, Chief of the Chickahominy Tribe
Panel –
Arlinda Locklear, Lumbee, Attorney, Washington D.C.
Rodney Smolla, Dean and Professor of Law, University of Richmond
- 10:45 Break
- 11:00 Session II – Government Policy as it Relates to American Indians
Moderator – Anne Richardson, Chief of the Rappahannock Tribe
Panel –
Mark Tilden, Navajo, Attorney, Native American Rights Fund
David Wilkins, Lumbee, Professor, University of Minnesota
- 12:30 pm Lunch with Keynote Speaker
Virginia Room F, Conference Center, Williamsburg Lodge
(Reservation required)
Robert Duncan, President, Bacone College
Introduction by Gene Nichol, President, College of William & Mary
- 2:00 Session III – Preserving History and Culture
Moderator – Warren Cook, Assistant Chief of the Pamunkey Tribe
Panel –
Deanna Francis, Passamaquoddy Tribe, Maine
Martin Gallivan, Professor of Anthropology, College of William & Mary
Jim Pepper Henry, Associate Director for Community & Constituent Services, National Museum of the American Indian
Maggie Paul, Passamaquoddy Tribe, Canada
E. Randolph Turner, Archaeologist with the Werowocomoco Project

3:30 Wrap Up
Chief Kenneth Adams, Upper Mattaponi Tribe

6:00 Reception and Banquet Dinner
Colony Room, Conference Center, Williamsburg Lodge
(Reservation required)

*Welcome Remarks:
Virginia Lieutenant Governor Bill Bolling and Senator Tommy Norment, Co-Chairman, Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation Board of Trustees*

Keynote Speaker: David Wilkins, Lumbee, Professor, University of Minnesota

Friday, October 6 – Tours of Tribal Centers
(Reservation required)

Meet at the Main Door of the Williamsburg Lodge Conference Center, located on S. England Street

9:00 am Bus departure from the Williamsburg Lodge for visits to the Pamunkey and Mattaponi Indian Reservations

Boxed lunch at the Upper Mattaponi Tribal Center

During the afternoon, continue with tours and special demonstrations at the Rappahannock and Chickahominy Tribal Centers

The day concludes with a special dinner at the Chickahominy Tribal Center, featuring music and dance demonstrations

8:00 pm Estimated return to the Williamsburg Lodge

Saturday, October 7 – Tour to the Monacan Homecoming
(Reservation required)

Meet at the Main Door of the Williamsburg Lodge Conference Center, located on S. England Street

8:30 am Bus departure from the Williamsburg Lodge for Amherst County to attend the Monacan Indian Nation's Annual Homecoming

Lunch included

7:00 pm Estimated arrival at the Williamsburg Lodge