

Jamestown LIVE! Register NOW for FREE November 9th Educational Webcast.

Jamestown LIVE!

The founding of Jamestown, Virginia in 1607 by three small ships and 104 English adventurers was a journey that changed the world. This first permanent English settlement in the Americas gave birth to our nation's most cherished legacies - democracy, cultural diversity, free enterprise and its spirit of exploration.

TAKE YOUR STUDENTS TO THE
17th century
21ST-CENTURY
STYLE!

SIGN UP NOW! ▶

Register now for the Jamestown Live! free educational webcast airing on November 9th.

Register for this free, once-in-a-lifetime event at www.jamestownjourney.org.

While there, you will find more than 70 free lesson plans, plus a new Teacher's Resource Guide developed by Time for Kids. Technical information for log in to the webcast is also posted at this Web site.

On November 9, 2006 at 1 P.M. EST, you and your students are invited to participate in Jamestown Live! a free one-hour educational webcast that brings to life the legacies that helped build the tapestry of our nation. Created in partnership with leading educational organizations to support standards, this online educational event is part of the America's 400th Anniversary commemoration.

Hosted by renowned veteran journalist and PBS correspondent Gwen Ifill from the sites where these historic events took place, Jamestown Live! offers creative programming designed for students in Grades 4 – 8.

Experience
THE JOURNEY THAT CHANGED THE WORLD

Your students will enjoy a highly interactive and engaging look at how representative government, cultural diversity and exploration began to shape our country and our society through:

- ▼ Fast-paced interviews with historians and special experts, conducted by student reporters
 - Dr. James Horn, author of "A Land as God Made It: Jamestown and the Birth of America"
 - Stephen Adkins, Chief of Virginia's Chickahominy Indian Tribe
 - Dr. Rex Ellis, Co-chair of the Jamestown 2007 African American Advisory Council
 - Dr. William Kelso, Director of archaeology at Historic Jamestowne
 - Dr. Kathryn Thornton, former NASA astronaut
 - Captain Eric Speth, maritime programs manager for Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation
 - Bill Warder, Park Ranger, Historic Jamestowne
- ▼ A live student audience – including representatives of all 50 states and the District of Columbia – participating in hands-on, living-history activities
- ▼ Participation in online surveys before and during the webcast
- ▼ Interactive question-and-answer sessions with featured experts
- ▼ Performances of original music interpreting historical and cultural themes

DON'T MISS TAKING THIS UNFORGETTABLE JOURNEY INTO AMERICA'S HISTORY AND DIVERSE CULTURAL HERITAGE!

Jamestown Live! is developed in partnership with NASA, NCSS, National Education Association, National History Day, U.S. Department of Education, The History Channel, the Jamestown 2007 African American and Virginia Indian Advisory Councils, Jamestown 400th Commemoration Commission, Historic Jamestowne and the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation. Jamestown Live! is funded in part by Colonial Williamsburg, Verizon and Norfolk Southern Corp., Founding Colony Sponsors of America's 400th Anniversary.